Written many technical manuals, six sigma lean manufacturing, developed program progress tracking databases.

What lessons did you learn from previous leadership positions?

Key learning, is influencing others without authority and team building skills.

Why do you want to serve as a District leader?

To contribute, give back to the organization.

In your opinion, what are the District mission's major objectives and how would you work to achieve them?

Empower individuals to become more effective communicators and leaders. Key in doing so at a District Level Leader, is the ability and skill to meld with a wide range of personalities. As a servant leader I recognize members unique strengths; challenge and encourage them do contentiously develop.
